

Increase your visibility with an ad in the 2026 Tuolumne County Travel Guide!

Purchase an ad, and your business will be highlighted in the listings section for better visibility.

For businesses with multiple listings: Purchase a full-page ad and receive up to two highlighted listings, you choose which two. For all other size ads, receive one highlighted listing, you choose which.

VTC partnership must be current for the 2025-2026 year to purchase advertising in the Travel Guide.

Distribution

Print: Travel Guides are distributed at various Bay Area locations such as the Pier 39 and Fairfield California Welcome Centers, Caltrain stations, Starbucks, Trader Joe's, Stanford University, and the San Jose and Oakland International Airports. In Southern California, they are available at the John Wayne Airport in Orange County. They're also distributed at the Visit Tuolumne County Visitors Center, through advertising leads, individual requests, media events, travel shows, and at local businesses.

75,000 copies will be printed in 2026!

Digital: A digital version is accessible via visittuolumne.com/request-a-vacation-planner.

The 2020/2021 DMO Visitor Guide Readership and Conversion Study, in which Visit Tuolumne County participated concluded that visitors guides remain relevant to those researching destinations and planning trips.

- 93% of survey respondents said that the Tuolumne County Visitors Guide helped them make a decision to visit Tuolumne County.
- Out of all of the participating destinations, Tuolumne County had the largest proportion of visitors who were potentially convertible.
- Attractions, recreation, and maps are at the top of the list of content sought by readers.
